All-LSC North Division Football honors announced

RICHARDSON, Texas – Lone Star Conference North Division champion Texas A&M-Commerce had eight first-team selections and four individual award winners recognized Thursday when the annual football awards were announced by LSC officials.

The Lions won its first outright divisional title since 1990 with a flawless 5-0 record. A&M-C had four offensive and four defensive first-teamers including two-time Co-Offensive Lineman of the Year R.J. Brisbon, Defensive Lineman of the Year William Green, Linebacker of the Year Cory Whitfield and Coach of the Year Guy Morriss.

Southeastern Oklahoma had 17 first- and second-team picks with nine on offense and eight on defense. Daniel Nichols was the Receiver of the Year for the Savage Storm.

Central Oklahoma had the most first-teamers with nine plus three second-teamers as well as Co-Offensive Lineman of the Year Luke Sapolu, Offensive Back of the Year Jason Palmer and Defensive Back of the Year Giorgio Durham.

Northeastern State totaled 12 first and second-team choices plus Freshman of the Year Michael Yoder.

East Central added six players to the top two teams, while Southwestern Oklahoma had five.

Overall, 78 student-athletes were recognized by the LSC's postseason awards program, with 31 players named to the first team, 29 on the second team and 18 earning honorable mention. The all-conference honors were selected by the head coaches of the six North Division teams.
